Master of Theology and Doctor of Ministry

PM501 Spiritual Formation of the Christian Leader+ 3/5 units McKinley M 1:30 – 4:10
This course explores how spiritual formation occurs in Christian leaders. With an understanding the very nature and scope of spiritual formation, some of the issues that hinder spiritual formation taking place in our lives will be discussed. Some of the barriers such as our own addictions and idolatries will be addressed so that we are able to experience God's grace in our personal lives and ministries. With an increased desire to move toward deeper intimacy with Jesus, we focus on developing significant formational habits in order to cultivate our interior life. Flowing out of our intimacy with Christ, we will more effectively minister in the church and in the society.

PM503 Building and Working with Teams 3/5 McKinley Fall interim Dec 2 -6

The shift from a "super leader" to effective teams is a global phenomenon that has impacted both the corporate world and the non-profit organizations including the Church of Jesus Christ. Thus, it is essential that today's leader knows how to work effectively with others in order to accomplish all that God desires for each organization. Building teams and working well with teams are mandatory for church leaders. This regularly offered course explores the many facets of building teams and working with teams.

PM505 Introduction to Peacebuilding & Conflict Transformation+ 3/5 Adoyo M 1.30 -4:10

The course provides a basic understanding of the distinctive nature of conflict transformation. Using scripture as the framework participants are exposed to a range of conflict systems and peacebuilding interventions. Restoration of relationships is at the core of peacebuilding and this occurs after healing of individuals has taken place. Consequences of unhealed pain and trauma are explored in the course. Emphasis is laid on re-examining peacebuilding practices against the backdrop of Biblical perspectives of building peace.
